

Golf Course Maintenance Consulting Service

With over 120 years of combined golf course maintenance experience, the GMS team is well respected throughout the United States. Our unique combination of proven agronomic disciplines and successful business acumen is innovative and covers many areas of golf course maintenance expertise.

Our Visits

GMS site visits are “custom fit” for your individual course needs. Prior to our visits we work with individuals identified by your facility to focus on your specific needs. Your time is valuable and we cover whatever topics your club has prioritized. Popular topics our clients often request include (more topics available).....

Complete Agronomic &amp; Playability Assessment (all turf types / data collection and recommendations)	Equipment Fleet Analysis / Sustainability (short and long term solutions)
Maintenance Standards Development (created to be best in market segmentation)	Budget Analysis / Creation (insure budgets reflect maintenance standards)
Irrigation Audits / Efficiencies in Water Utilization (experience with all types of systems)	Bunker Evaluation (experience with all bunker product techniques)
Capital Improvement Planning for Sustainability (asset reserve planning and recommendations)	Tree Evaluation / Shade Studies (impact on turf and playability)
Labor Studies (employee hiring, training and development trends)	Environmental Studies (impact of your facility and public relations)

Pricing

Full Day Site Visit $2,000

*Price reduced if three or more visits are contracted in one calendar year

- Price includes all preparation and communication prior to visit.
- Full day course review (topics covered are based on you specific needs).
- Report with action plans and recommendations.
- Pricing does not include travel expenses. GMS has agronomists in Myrtle Beach, Virginia Beach, Phoenix and Chicago. Our travel expenses will not exceed $1,000 for a one day site visit (when given sufficient time to plan travel) and often are less than $1,000 based on location. GMS makes every effort to visit more than one facility when in a specific market to help keep travel expenses minimized for our clients.
